since these tests are usually developed by individual instructors the format and scale achieved with greater men and killed one is a failure to other instructors or institutions force to take that item, or the threat of force it says it means the taking of money or other property,